MICHIGAN'S SENATOR.

CUMBERLAND FAIR—TOOMBS AND GRANT.

Mrs. Potts Attempts Suicide---Rabers Murderers to Hang---New York Returns, etc., etc.

DETROIT, Nov. 13.—Governor Croswell this afternoon appointed Fernando C. Beaman United States Senator to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Chandler.

Cumberland Fair.

Special Dispatch to the NEWS.

FAYETTEVILLE, Nov. 13.—To-day was a beautiful one, rather warm, and a large crowd are here on attendance to the Fair. Had some very fine racing, and every one seemed to enjoy himself. Governor Jarvis, Colonel W. A. Johnston and Colonel L. L. Polk made speeches, all of which were good and complimented.

Nothing of particular public interest occurred to-day to demand a lengthy report.

Bob Toombs' Congratulation to Grant.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—The Daily News having invited the Governors of the States and prominent southern men to send congratulations on Grant's return, have received a number of such congratulations including one from Hon. Alex. H. Stephens, from General Longstreet, and the following from Hon. Robert Toombs: Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 12.—M. E. Stone, Editor: Your telegram received. I decline to answer except to say, present my personal congratulations to General Grant on his safe arrival to his country. He fought for his country honorably and won. I fought for mine and lost. I am ready to try it over again. Death to the Union. (Signed,) R. TOOMBS.

LATER.

General Toombs, in an interview with the Constitution reporter says his dispatch to the Chicago News is repeated in a garbled state. The interpretation of the language is that the result of the war was the death of the Union, and under the present government it is a consolidated one—not a confederacy.

Mrs. Potts Wants to Die.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—Mrs. Mattie Potts, who recently completed a walk from Philadelphia to New Orleans and return, attempted to commit suicide last night by placing her head on a railroad track. She was observed in time and her suicidal purpose frustrated. Letters were found upon her addressed to the New York Herald, Charlotte (N. C.) Observer, Baltimore American, Atlanta Constitution, and New Orleans Times, stating, amongst other things that poverty and failure to find employment led to the act.

Fire in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 13.—A fire last night in the auction clothing store of A. and L. Levy, corner of Magazine and Gravier streets caused a loss of $50,000, fully insured as follows: $10,000 in Marshal J. Smith's agency; $5,000 in Teutonia; $5,000 in San Mutual; $5,000 in Merchants; $5,000 in other companies. M. L. Huggin's tobacco manufactury, adjoining Levy's store, was badly damaged. It was insured for $9,000 in the Manhattan and Mechanics and Traders.

A Bad Gun.

GALVESTON, Nov. 13.—A special from Elpaso says: This evening a gun in the hands of a negro was discharged on this side of the Rio Grande and the bullet killed a Mexican and wounded a boy in Predras Negras, on the opposite side, causing great excitement in the latter place. The negro escaped.

A report has just reached here of a fight occurring a week ago between the Indians and Americans in the vicinity of the Sierramojada mines in which one American was killed. No names or details given.

Catholics and the Public Schools.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—A Boston special states that a serious controversy has arisen between members of the Roman Catholic parish of St. Mary's, in Cambridgeport, and their priest, Father Scully, on account of the latter's refusal to administer the sacred rites of the church to such of his congregation as send their children to the public school. Inasmuch as the priest is sustained by Archbishop Williams his action has caused a sensation throughout this part of the State.

Another Foolhardy Adventurer.

LONDON, November 10.—The Sportsman says: Robert Carlisle, the Cornish pedestrian, who has undertaken to walk from Land's End, England, to John O'Groat's House, Scotland, and back, trundling a wheelbarrow, arrived at Edinburgh, on his return journey, on Friday last. It is said that after he has completed his present feat he will attempt to cross the Atlantic in a small boat.

Democratic Majority in the Maine Legislature.

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 13.—It is reported to-day from Augusta that the State authorities have certificates prepared to send out, giving seats to seventeen of the Democratic Senators and eighty-five Representatives, giving them a majority and quorum in case the Republicans retire.

Failed---Elliott to Visit America.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Meyer Schlinse & Co., silk merchants, of Lyons, have failed. Liabilities £50,000.

Elliott, who was successful in a match with Boyd will visit America and row Hanlan or would join in the race with Courtney and Hanlan for the $5,000 purse.

Six More Men Gone.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Heavy gales occurred yesterday at Scarborough, Liverpool, Kirkwall and Dundee causing some damage to shipping. By the explosion of a fire damp yesterday at the Short Heath colliery, near Woolverton, six men perished.

Manchester Markets.

MANCHESTER, Nov. 13.—The markets are again very strong and in some instances higher. The producers hesitate to enter upon new engagements in view of the rapid rise. Common buyers purchase cheap lots readily, but transactions at full prices are few.

New York Returns.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—An Albany special says that the official returns from all but a few counties show Haskins' majority to be 1,330; Carr's about 2,000; Wendell's about 3,000.

Seymour the Only one Left.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The Sun has received the official returns from fifty out of sixty counties in the State. The close comparison between these and the unofficial returns from the other ten counties indicate that Hoskins (Rep.) for Lieutenant-Governor has defeated Potter by about 1100 majority. Carr (Repub.) for Secretary of State was elected by nearly the same majority. Wadsworth (Repub.) for Comptroller will have an increased majority over that of Hoskins' ward. Mr. Wendell (Rep.) is also elected as Attorney General and Treasurer. The majority for Horatio Seymour, Jr., (Dem.) for Engineer and Surveyor will be toward 10,000. John Kelly's vote has increased over the previous estimates, and will reach 75,000.

Abandoned Bark's Crew Brought In.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—The crew of the British bark Royal Arch, reported as abandoned at sea, have been brought to Liverpool by the steamer Minnesota, which sighted the Royal Arch off Nova Scotia. The crew reported the vessel as leaky, and that they had been at the pumps several days, but the pumps had choked. One man had been washed overboard and drowned. The steamer had sent a boat to take off the crew, but the weather was so rough that the men were compelled to jump into the sea and were then hauled into the boat by a line.

Foreign Notes.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—A Constantinople dispatch says there is a strong tendency on the part of the Turkish Cabinet to enter into an active alliance with Russia. It is said the Sultan has been won over to the views of the Grand Vizier, and that Osman Pasha will especially advocate a close understanding with Russia.

Lord Hasting Wins.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—The race for the Shrewsbury cup, (Handicap) at the Shrewsbury meeting to-day, was won by Lord Roseberry's Rhidorrock, "Lord Hastings." "Breadfinder" was second, and Bowers Jaggelen third. Eight horses ran.

"Not Guilty."

LEBANON, Pa., Nov. 13.—The jury in the Zeechman murder case, after being out 20 hours, returned a verdict this morning of not guilty.

The Raber Murderers Must Hang.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 13.—The Governor has refused to reprive Chas. Drews and Franklin Stiehler, the Raber murderers, who are to be hanged at Lebanon to-morrow.

King Cotton "Looms" Up.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—A Liverpool dispatch says: There is an exceedingly active demand for cotton at a general advance in prices. The demand is doubtless the result of the improved condition of trade at Manchester.

A Strange Double Suicide.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Two unknown persons went over to Woods' Falls, about two and a half miles from here, this afternoon. They were in a boat equipped with oars, which hung in the locks untouched. From appearances it is thought they intended suicide. The person in the bow was so bundled up that it was impossible to say whether it was a man or a woman. The bodies have not yet been recovered.

What Does This Mean?

PARIS, Nov. 12.—A long and important conference between President Grevy and M. Gambetta took place to-day. France is building a number of first-class fortresses on the Belgian frontier, and this fact causes much uneasiness in Brussels.

Tom Keogh.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Hon. Thomas be Keogh, chairman North Carolina Republican State committee, says he is not a candidate for the secretaryship of the National Republican Committee. He thinks Governor elect Cornell, being a strong Grant man, will be chosen chairman of the National committee.

THE MANIAC MOTHER.

Additional Particulars of the Lancaster Tragedy.

Charlotte Observer, 13th.

We have a letter written from Chester, S. C., under date of yesterday, furnishing particulars of the tragedy of last Saturday night in Lancaster county, S. C., in addition to those which the Observer has already published. Our correspondent has his news from a citizen of Lancaster who alleges that the children were not killed with a knife, as at first reported; nor was the mother content with the mere cutting of the jugular veins of the children. A hatchet was found in the cradle, and with this hatchet it is reasonably believed the deed was committed. The cuts on the throats were in most instances directly across the throat, and nearly through. The infant had a terrible bruise on its right shoulder, made, it is supposed, by a miss-lick of the hatchet, when the child must have awakened, and having moved its head, another blow was struck on the jaw bone, and another just below the ear and still another directly across the throat. It is now thought the children were killed on a pallet in front of the fire, and this theory is supported by the fact that pools of blood were found under that part of the house and between the planks of the floor immediately in front of the hearth. It is believed that the mother washed the blood from the floor with a quilt, parts of which were found in the ashes on the hearth. The children had undoubtedly, it is now said, been arranged in bed after the killing by Mrs. Adams.

An additional incident is that a bottle of strychnine was found in the house on Sunday, and on a table was discovered a cup which contained water which was bitter to the taste. It is thought the woman had taken a dose of this, which failed to produce death when she set fire to her clothes. She had evidently not retired, for her bed had not been disturbed. After meeting Mr. M. C. Crenshaw, and after he had taken her to his own yard, Mrs. Adams repeatedly laid her head on a bench in the yard and begged him to cut it off. She is spoken of in the community as a woman of excellent character, industrious and energetic. An evidence of her industry is the fact that herself, husband and her children were always well and neatly clad with clothing made by her own hands. She is said to have done most of the work in the field.

The jury of inquest rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts as already published.

The bodies of the mother and her five children were all buried Monday in a box, 5x9, the mother being placed in one end, the baby next, and so on up to the eldest. Our correspondent's informant says that in all his experience in war and elsewhere, he never witnessed such a horribly sad picture as that presented in the mother burned to a crisp, and her five children with their throats cut, lying in that box together.

"Quack, quack, quack," said the doctor, found Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in the house of almost every patient, but his bills decreased and the people were happy. Price twenty-five cents a bottle.

A PRESIDENT BY FRAUD

AND NOW MATT CARPENTER IS SOUNDING AN ALARM.

The Senator Tells How the Democrats May Choose the Next President and Get Even with Radicals.

Philadelphia Times.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—An elaborate and evidently carefully prepared interview from Senator Matt Carpenter has appeared in the Republican of this city. He evidently sees the shadow of the Republican frauds of 1876-7 casting themselves on the next Presidential struggle, and he sounds the alarm to the party. The following is the portion of his interview relating to the next Presidency, and the possible revolutionary movements on both sides:

Reporter.—You remarked the other day that General Grant, if nominated, would be elected?

Senator.—Yes, that's what I said, and I might have added that, if elected, he will be inaugurated.

Reporter.—What do you mean by that remark?

Senator.—Exactly what I say. He'll be inaugurated, despite the efforts that may be made to prevent it. I am not an alarmist, and I don't want to be reported as such. But I see I am in for it with you, and I might as well go on with a prediction that I've often made of late. It is that the Democrats will protest against the count of the electoral votes of some one or more of our Republican States when the two houses meet in joint convention for that duty in February, 1881. They will base their protest upon what they will allege to have been an unconstitutional exercise of Federal power in the execution of the national election laws. They may take California for this purpose, or New York, or Pennsylvania, or any State wherein the slightest pretence, real or manufactured for the express object, may be furnished. Then the two houses will separate, and one or both will sustain the protest. The vote of that State will be thrown out, and it will be declared that there was no election, and the House will assume to elect a President

The preliminary arrangements for that emergency will be made in the House, the same as they are attempting to make them in the Senate by unseating Mr. Kellogg, so that the Democratic nominee for President will be elected under the form and color of law. One step has already been taken in the House in this direction by the unseating of Mr. Bisbee, of Florida, and the seating of Mr. Hull in his place. That gives the vote of Florida, on a vote by States, to the Democrats, so that the House now stands, on such a vote, nineteen Democratic States to nineteen Republican States—counting the Indiana Greenback member with the opposition. But in that far-off December session, when the Kellogg case will probably be acted upon, and when all such action will be no longer influential upon any coming election, they may unseat Mr. Oarth, of Indiana, or some other Republican. The decision of the contests in these cases adversely to the present occupants would give their seats to Democratic contestants and insure a Democratic majority by States in the House.

Reporter. Then you foresee nothing but Democratic disaster in the future?

Senator. Exactly; either disaster and overwhelming defeat to the Democrats, or that they will rescue themselves from that fate by the methods I have described. In other words, they may attempt to save themselves in the Senate by imposing an unelected President upon the country. It will require the promptings of desperation itself to induce them to adopt these measures; but they are rapidly becoming desperate enough to attempt them. And these are the reasons why I believe they may exert every possible method to retain their majority in the Senate. That majority gone, they will, as I've said, lose their foothold in every branch of the government. To keep that foothold they must necessarily unseat Mr. Kellogg and admit Mr. Spofford, or some other Democrat from Louisiana.

Reporter. But what benefit will the Senate be to them—they'll only hold it for two years, until 1883?

Senator. There's another contingency to be considered. Suppose, now, the preliminary arrangements I spoke of for a Presidential election by the House should all fail! There's another chance for them so long as they hold control of the Senate. In the event of a failure to elect by the House, the presiding officer of the Senate becomes President ex officio. Even if the House is a tie, as it may be and will be if those preliminary arrangements are not carried out, the protests against the count of electoral votes might be debated, continued and delayed, and other devices might be resorted to until the term of the present administration expires. Then the Senate would choose a President pro tem., who would become President of the United States ex-officio until a new election should be ordered.

The Republican falls in with Senator Carpenter's terror over the prospect of the arbitrary exercise of Democratic authority, and will close a leader to-morrow on the interview as follows:

"Forewarned is forearmed, is an apt quotation used by Senator Carpenter in his revelations, and if the loyal people of the country are not forearmed by his timely warning he cannot be blamed. Having studied the situation closely, he has not hesitated to give the results of his observations to the public, and in doing so he has simply done his duty, albeit they go forth in the orm of a newspaper interview."

DAVIE.

ELBAVILLE, Nov. 11.—Last week we had a cold snap, followed by a light shower, and then the weather moderated until yesterday, when the thermometer stood at 76° in the shade, and now I see a beautiful butterfly seated upon a flower. Keeping time with his wings to the gentle zephyrs as they are wafted by him, no doubt he feels that spring has come again.

The wheat is looking finely.

Trade is brisk, with an upward tendency in prices.

John A. Charles, a quiet, industrious citizen, died suddenly on the 1st inst.

The news from the elections last week made some of our politicians rather sick, though the farmers seemed not to mind it, stimulated as they are by the liberal prices obtained for their products.

The young men of the Farmington neighborhood have just organized a Young Men's Christian Association.

Dr. William Johnson has just had cause to rejoice, in the possession of a pair of twins—presented by Mrs. Johnson—both girls. E.

CARTERET.

BEAUFORT, Nov. 12.—James H. Pool, he well known proprietar of the Ocean View Hotel in this place, died after a brief illness of pneumonia, about 5 o'clock this evening. H.

ORANGE.

CHAPEL HILL, Nov. 12.—Our Railroad has received new life. At a meeting of its friends, on Thursday last, some three thousand dollars were subscribed. It was decided to raise the necessary amount on the route from Chapel Hill to Durham. The feeling is that the road will now be built. It is expected that work will soon begin. It would seem very much to the interest of Raleigh to run this road to that place. It would carry a large trade there which will be turned elsewhere, if the road is allowed to go to Durham. But the feeling here is to run it to Durham. It is confidently asserted that this little road will be extended north to Oxford perhaps; and south to Lockville, or Egypt, or some point on that road between there and Greensboro. This will give us a choice of routes either north or south.

Mr. R. H. Patterson, of this county, has lately bought a house in town with a view to coming here to live.

Mr. Richard Thompson has just moved in and will occupy a house which has long been unfinished, but has lately been put in first rate order for his occupation.

The students have adopted glass ball shooting and walking races as a source of amusement. They had quite a spirited contest last Saturday in which the winners did some pretty good walking. They made 13½ miles in two hours.

Still no rain and the weather warm.

JOHNSTON.

CLAYTON, Nov. 13.—The weather is fair and warm. There has been nearly an average cotton crop made through this section. It is so dry that farmers have not sown wheat.

Trade is very good.

The revival of the Methodists closed last Sunday night. More than twenty persons professed during the meeting.

Miss Lulu Jones, daughter of Dr. Jones, of this place, had her leg run over and broken by a wagon.

WRECKERS TO FIND CHAMPION.

Frank Sacobson, the Wheelman, Declining to Talk.

New York Sun, 12th.

Yesterday morning Mr. James W. Quintard, the agent of the New York and Charleston line of steamers, arrived from Charleston. He met Capt. Lockwood and the other surviving officers of the steamer Champion, with whose wreck last Friday thirty-three souls were lost. From them Mr. Quintard heard the full particulars of the disaster. It is said that Capt. Lockwood yesterday noted his protest against the owners of the Lady Octavia before a Wall street firm of marine and insurance brokers and adjusters of averages. Early yesterday the Coast Wrecking Company's steamer Releif departed for the scene of the Champion's collision with the ship Lady Octavia. The crew of the Relief will locate the wreck, if possible. The wreck lies at the bottom of the sea fifteen or sixteen miles out from the Five Fathom Bank Lightship at the mouth of Delaware Bay. The diver, who is one of the crew of the Relief, will examine the wreck if the weather permits, and a buoy will be attached to it if possible. It is said that no attempt will be made to raise the Champion before next spring.

Frank Jacobson, one of the crew of the Champion, was found at work on the wharf of the Charleston line. He is a young man, a Norwegian, with a square, heavy face, and dull, expressionless eyes. He began his narrative of his experience on the Champion by saying that he didn't know anything.

"Why don't you know anything?" he was asked.

"'Cause I was at the wheel," said he.

"When did you see the Lady Octavia?"

"I didn't see it," said he.

"Not at all?"

"I never seen it till it was reported," he said.

"Who reported it?"

"The officer on deck—Mr Leonard," he replied.

"Who called out, 'Sail ahead'?"

"The lookout," answered Jacobson.

"Did you change her course?"

"I did," he replied. "I changed at the Captain's order."

"But at the time of the collision what did you do?"

"I don't know. I tell you I don't know nothing.

"You jumped aboard the English ship didn't you!"

"Yes," said Jacobson, and added, and that's all I know. I tell you I don't know anything."

A SPARK IN A POWDER KEG.

William Morrissey Tries to Prevent An Explosion.

The carelessness of William Morrissey, a blaster in the employ of Patrick Farley of No. 141 East Sixty-third street resulted in an accident yesterday by which Morrisey was maimed for life. Mr Farley has contracted for blasting out the rocks on the block on the east side of Second Avenue, between Seventy-first and Seventy-second streets. The rock which is being blasted, is a plateau, about thirty-five feet above the level of the street, covering the whole square. Mr. Farley has six steam drills at work, which are supplied with steam from a boiler that stands about one hundred and twenty-five feet east of Second avenue, under a shed running about fifty feet from east to west and twenty feet north to south.

At the southeastern side there is a coal shed, under which is a forge used for sharpening the drills and other iron work. About fifty men were at work yesterday morning. Morrissey, who has been employed as blaster for Mr. Farley and his brother, ex-Alderman Terence Farley, for twenty years, had charge of the blasting. He kept the blasting powder in a tin box, which was placed inside of a wooden chest. The air being damp, Morrissey put the powder box about five feet from the anvil and forge. James Kehoe of No. 446 Ninth avenue and George Bennett, were at work sharpening and tempering drills. Morrissey entered the shed, removed the cover of the box, and was about to take out some powder, when a spark from the anvil fell into the box. Morrissey saw it, and having before taken a spark from a powder keg, tried the experiment once more. He failed, and an explosion followed. Morrissey was thrown several feet, the entire south wall and part of the east wall were torn away, and the roof was scattered promiscuously. As soon as the smoke had blown off it was found that no one except Morrissey had been hurt. His shoes and socks were torn from his feet, two toes were literally torn from his right foot, a piece of shoe sole was driven into his right cheek about half an inch below the eye, and his head and body was much burned. He was sent to the Presbyterian Hospital by Acting Sergeant Martin of the Twenty-eighth Precinct, who, having heard the detonation, hurried at once to the spot.

The Louisville Courier-Journal says the Democratic party is getting heaps of advice from the Republican organs. They evidently don't believe the party is as dead as they assert.

GOULDEN'S JEWEL BOX.

SHE ACCUSES INTERPRETER ST. ALBE OF STEALING IT.

How "Justus Knapp" Gave a Spurious Bank Check for $100 and Walked off With $1,000.

New York Star.

Mrs. Louisa Goulden, of 211 West Thirty-fourth street, tall, handsome, elegantly dressed in a black silk suit, and wearing flashing diamond earrings, entered Jefferson Market Court Tuesday afternoon in great nervous excitement. Her hair was jetty black and her large alert eyes were very dark, and her face was much powdered. She walked excitedly to Justice Flanner's bench, followed by officer Michael Ward and Gustave St. Albe, the well-known interpreter in the Court of Special Sessions. Mr. St. Albe carried a law book under his arm. He had been arrested on his way to the Columbia Law School at Great Jones street, Lafayette place. Justice Flanner opened his eyes in astonishment when he saw Mr. St. Albe—whom he had left only two hours before—a prisoner at the bar. When Mrs. Goulden had recovered her breath and calmed herself enough to speak, she said:

"My name is Mrs. Louisa Goulden, and I live at No. 211 West Thirty-fourth street. In March last I advertised rooms in my house for boarders, with or without board. I had a back room for $25 a month without board. I reserved for myself a bedroom in the first story, which connects with the parlor and hallway. In my bedroom there was a bureau, on the top of which lay my jewel box and one thousand dollars worth of diamonds and jewelry. I advertised on a Sunday. On Monday a gentleman called at the house and presented himself as Justus Knapp. He wanted to see some rooms. He was shown the back room, but did not like it. He said he was willing to pay one hundred dollars a month for rooms he liked. I led him up to the second story and he said that as he liked the front room he would hire that, and would take only a cup of coffee in the morning. He told me that he would not occupy the room all the summer as he was going to Europe in June. He then gave me as references, D. Appleton & Co., the publishers, and a Mr. Knapp, a wealthy gentleman, whom he said was his uncle. He then told me that he and his friend lived at the Gramercy Hotel, and that he would return at 3 o'clock. I was very much impressed with him. He talked like a man of the world. I introduced him to Mr. Thos. French, a boarder in the house.

Mr. Knapp began talking about jewels, and drew from his pocket a small box of diamonds, which he said he intended to present to Phillipine. Mr. Knapp then drew out a check upon the Second National Bank for $100, and signed it Justus Knapp. This he paid over as rent in advance. He then said that his trunks would arrive at 6 o'clock that evening.

A few minutes past 6 he returned again. All the boarders in the house had gone down stairs for dinner. He inquired whether his baggage had arrived. I told him that nothing had come yet, and told him he could remain in the parlor a few minutes, as he seemed to expect the trunks every moment. I went down starirs to dinner, and when I returned up stairs I found the front door of my bedroom open, and Mr. Knapp was not to be found. Next I found that that my jewel-box and diamonds were not to be found. I ran up stairs but he was not there, and I got so excited I did not know what to do. Some of the boaders ran out for a policeman, but Mr. Knapp was beyond reach.

Next day I called at the Second National Bank, and presented the check. They pronounced it worthless, and said they had no depositor of that name. A few days after this I received a letter containing a photograph and a lock of My mother's hair, which had been taken from a locket. The letter read:

Since these must be very dear to you I take this opportunity of sending them to you. I am going West. Forgive me, forgive me, forgive me.

Mr. St. Albe. Justice Flammer and Officer Ward were by this time deeply interested in Mrs. Goulden's story. She continued:

"I then procured the services of a private detective. That was the last I heard or saw of Mr. Knapp until this afternoon. I was going down Broadway in a stage on my way to the office of my lawyer, Moses B. McClay. I was looking out of the window when near Spring street, and I saw Mr. Knapp walking up the street. I got out of the stage and looked for an officer. I could not find one, and, looking after Mr. Knapp, I lost him, too. I was a little excited, I admit, but I ran and looked and found him again. I went up to him and said:

'I want you; you are my man.' This officer came along, and I told him to arrest this man for stealing my diamonds."

Officer Ward said:

"Mr. St. Albe said it was a mistake. I told him I was sorry, but I must take him to the Prince street police station. There the gentleman told the Captain that he was Gustave St. Albe, interpreter for the Special Sessions Court. The Captain told him he had better go to court and see Justice Flammer."

During the recital of this testimony Mr. St. Albe stood erect and impassive. The magistrate turned to Mrs. Goulden and asked:

"Are you sure this is the man?"

"I cannot be mistaken. I talked with him at 10 o'clock, at 3 o'clock, and again at 6 o'clock. He was a German, and I recognice his accent. One of my boarders, Mr. French, had seen Knapp, and he will identify him. His check and writing are now in the hands of Rev. Dr. Houghton of the 'Little Church Around the Corner,' and they can be compared with his writing. This—I swear before God—this is my man."

This she said with a positiveness almost amounting to fervor.

The magistrate paused a moment, and then asked very deliberately:

"Are you positive this is the man?"

Mrs. Goulden then turned to Mr. St. Albe and inquiringly asked:

"Do you remember the jewel box you had with you—a present for Philipine?"

Mr. St. Albe answered: "No, I never saw you before to my knowledge. I was on my way from the Tombs Court to the Law School, after I had left your Honor, when this lady came up to me excitedly, and said. 'This is my man,' called a policeman and told him to take me. I never was more surprised in my life, as your Honor may suppose."

"Well, do you know this lady?"

"I have never seen her in all my life."

Mrs. Goulden was asked again whether she identified Mr. St. Albe as her friend Knapp. She answered:

"I remember his accent now. He was a German, and so is this gentleman. I am sure it is him."

The magistrate then turned to Mr. St. Albe and asked:

"Will you take your solemn oath that you never saw this lady before?"

Mr. St. Albe then took the oath.

"That's all, madame. He is discharged," said the Justice.

Mrs. Goulden was dissatisfied, and as she turned to leave the Court she said: "I do not mind spending some money to get him in the hands of justice. I don't expect to get my jewels back, but I'll have him punished."

ABUSING A DETECTIVE.

A Confidence Operator Fined and Held in Bail.

N. Y. News.

Detective Adams, of the Fourteenth Precinct, brought before Justice Otterbourg, in the Tombs Police Court today, William Shaw, the notorious confidence operator, whom he charged with disorderly conduct and using threatening language. Shaw, whose picture as a pick-pocket, is in the Rogue's Gallery under the name of William McGiven, was attired in the height of fashion, and smiled sarcastically as the officer brought him to the bar.

Yesterday Detectives Adams and Dolan saw David F. Smythe, another confidence man, meet Michael J. Whelan, of Schuylkill county, Penn., in the Anson House, where they had met by appointment to exchange counterfeit money for greenbacks. Shaw, who was passing by, saw the officers, and, running into the Anson House, warned Smythe, who tore up the papers he had in his possession.

The officers arrested Smythe, but found nothing to convict him, in his possession. A dispatch was found on Whelan purporting to come from F. A. Johnson, of 353 East Eighty-sixth street, directing Whelan to notify the counterfeit dealers by wire when he would arrive here. Owing to lack of evidence against Smythe, he was discharged from custody. Soon after Shaw met Detective Adams in Broome street, and stepping in front of him, said: "I am a smarter and better man than you." The detective made no answer, whereupon Shaw shook his fist in his face, and after assailing him with the vilest abuse, said: "If I had you in a quiet place, I would down you before you knew what struck you." Detective Adams then arrested him. Mr. Abe H. Hummell, who appeared for Shaw, claimed that the arrest was a malicious one.

Justice Otterbourg fined shaw $10 and placed him under $500 bail for his good behavior. Shaw's fine was paid for him, and his bail given by Edward F. Byrne, keeper of the saloon, 19 West Houston street, for licensing which Excise Commissioners Morrison and Merkle are now under indictment.

FACTS ABOUT DRINKING.

Satistics of the Amount of Beverages Drank in America.

Americans take high rank among the people of the world as coffee drinkers. Recent statistics place the amount of coffee used per capita each year, in different parts of Europe, as follows: Russia, one-fifth of a pound; Great Britain and Italy, one pound; Austri-Hungary, one and a half pounds; France, five pounds; Germany, four and a half pounds; Denmark, five pounds; Switzerland, six and three-fourth pounds; Holland seven pounds, and Belgium nearly nine pounds. The consumption of the genuine coffee in the United States during the year 1878 was about seven pounds for each man, woman and child, or about five times as large amount of coffee as of tea. The consumption of bogus "coffee" also amounted to one or two pounds per capita. The use of coffee throughout the world has increased in large ratio during the past forty years and the present requirement for all nations is estimated at 850,000,000 pounds per annum, against 490,000,000 per annum from 1840 to 1850.

An increased use of coffee does not necessarily mean a decreased consumption of other beverages. As will be seen by the statistics given above, the Germans, who are particularly distinguished as beer-drinkers, are also prominent coffee-drinkers; and the French, who are somewhat noted wine-bibbers, also drink considerable coffee.

The champion beer-drinkers of the world are undoubtedly the people of Bavaria, who drink 147½ gallons of beer per head, for which they pay $13.50. The total outlay in Bavaria for this beverage is more than $65,000,000 per annum. The figures given for the two principal cities of Bavaria—Nuremburg and Munich—and for Ingolstadt are still larger per capita. The former city has a population of about 90,000, and consumes annually about 212 gallons for each inhabitant. This is an average expense to each person of about $19; total about $1,700,000. The population of Munich is about 175,000; the beer drank per person annually is about 248 gallons; this is an average expense of about $22.30. Total, about $3,900,000. Ingolstadt, with a population of only about 15,000, expends annually for its favorite drink about $715,000. This is an average to each inhabitant of about $47.60, with an average consumption of about 528 gallons.

Uncle Sam's Farm.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The annual report of the General Land Office shows that, during the fiscal year ended June 30th last, 9,333,353 acres of the public lands were disposed of, and 9,484,996 acres were surveyed in addition to the 734,591,236 acres previously surveyed. The total number of acres of the public domain still unsurveyed, is about one thousand and eighty one million. The disposals were mainly as follows:

Homestead entries, 5,240,111 acres; timber culture entries, 2,7,66,574 acres; cash entries 622,574 acres, including 165,996 acres entered under the desert land laws. Grants to railroads, 278,334 acres; swamp lands patented to States, 75,688 acres; other grants to States, 186-392 acres. The amount of land surveyed during the last fiscal year exceeds by 414,769 acres the total area surveyed in the preceding twelve months, and while the report shows a falling off of some 773,000 acres in cash sales, State selections, scrip locations and lands patented for railroad grants, the increase in the area taken up by settlers under the homestead and timber culture laws has been sufficient not only to counterbalance this falling off but to make the aggregate disposals for the year greater by 647,204 acres than the total for the previous year.

The increase in homestead entries was 841,766 acres and in timber culture entries 896,139 acres. Owing to the existing laws for the disposal of the public lands for homesteads and timber culture, it is shown that during the last fiscal year, with a larger disposal of land, there were received from all sources $1,858,1?3.56, less by $139,418.60 than the amount received during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1868. Referring to the large accumulation of undelivered patents remaining on file in this office (nearly two million, and covering not less than one hundred and fifty millions of acres, no small proportion being lands purchased of the Government more than half a century ago, and lying in the States of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois), the Commissioner again urges the necessity for an appropriation sufficient to pay for completing lists of these patents, with a view of bringing to the knowledge of parties interested the fact that such patents remain in this office, and how they can be obtained by them.

TAUGHT TO STEAL.

STORY OF A BOY'S EXPERIENCES WHEN HE RAN AWAY.

Picking Pockets for the Benefit of His Elders---His Parents Discovery of His Whereabouts.

New York World.

William Elliott, eleven years old, lived until last summer with his parents on West Twentieth street, near Eighth avenue and attended school. He was clever, but something of a truant. One day last summer he was persuaded by other boys to play truant. They wandered about the city all day and when night came William Elliott, anticipating a whipping from his father, was affraid to go home and announced to his companions his determination to abandon his home. The other boys were older than he and supported themselves and the parents of one of them by stealing. They received William Elliott—who had good clothing and a little money—with open arms and he was taken into the organization with appropriate ceremonies, an oath being administered pledging Willie to eternal fidelity and secrecy. Then the band of amateur thieves had a supper and afterwards a dance, which Elliott thoroughly enjoyed. His failure to return home from school at the usual hour caused his parents much uneasiness. They sent to the school and learned that he had not put in appearance that day and that for some weeks he had been very irregular in his attendance and very troublesome when he did attend. An unsuccessful search was made for him and then his disappearance was reported at Police Headquarters and a general alarm given. But the police did not find any trace of him, and he was given up as dead.

Yesterday afternoon his mother and sister called on Superintendent Walling at police headquarters and told him the story of William Elliott's disappearance and the search for him. The ladies were greatly affected as they spoke of the missing boy, who had been a great pet. The Superintendent became interested in their story and directed Captain Turner to search the accident and arrest books. He did so, and found that on September 27th a boy named William Elliott, aged eleven, had been arrested for larceny. His description was read to the ladies, and they identified the boy as their William Elliott, and when they were told that he had been arrested as a criminal they became hysterical. The records at headquarters did not show what disposition had been made of the lad, and the ladies were directed to the Tombs for further information. But they could get none either at the Tombs Police Court or the Court of Special Sessions. At the Jefferson Market Court, however, it was learned that the boy had been there on a charge of petty larceny, and had been committed on October 7th by Justice Bixby for trial in General Sessions in default of $500 bail. When he was questioned in the Court about his relatives he remained silent. He was sent to the Tombs, and on October 13th was arraigned in General Sessions, where he pleaded guilty and was sent to the Catholic Protectory. There he was found by a World reporter last night.

"I was sent to school on July 22d," he said, "but didn't go. I met some boys, friends of mine, who had a lot of story-books, and we went to a shed and passed the day reading them. We all got very much interested in the adventures of the heroes, and we thought we would just like to lead such a life as they led, and do some great and wonderful deeds. The biggest boy, whose name was "Bill," proposed that we should band together and start out in search of adventures. I was afraid to go home, as papa had threatened to give me a whipping if he caught me playing truant again."

"What is your father's name?" the reporter asked.

"I don't want to tell, but he is connected with the elevated railroad, and has plenty of money. I suppose if he knew I was here he would come after me and take me home, and probably whip me, as I deserve. But to go on, as you seem to be interested in my story and perhaps will write a dime novel about it. On the night of July 22d—that was not long after the 4th, you know—I was taken to a lodge in Eighteenth street, between Seventh and Eighth avenues. There the parents of one of the boys lived. We had a royal supper and afterwards we went to a large shed in the yard, which was lit up with a few candles. The night was dark, and while we were there making plans a thunder storm came on and some of us got very much frightened. Big Bill assured us that there was no danger, and that it was a good sign for us.

I was so frightened, however, that I wanted to go home right away, but they wouldn't let me. That night I slept in a very cold room with two other boys. In the morning we went out prospecting. There were six of us. We walked about in two's, but kept all the time in sight of each other. I was taught to steal. I did not like that very much but I got used to it. We got along splendidly, principally picking pockets. All that we got we gave to the keeper of the house. On September 27, I was alone on the corner of Twenty-fourth street and Sixth avenue. A well-dressed 'bloke' came along and I picked his pocket of 50 cents. Just as I did so and had hid away the money a 'cop' hove in sight. He must have seen me picking the man's pocket, for he ran after me and 'collared' me. I was locked up, but I didn't 'squeal' or give the other fellows away. In the morning I was taken to court and the judge sent me to the Tombs. In a few days I was taken to another court-house and the judge there sentenced me to this place, which I like well enough."

An Interview With General Grant.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 12.—A special dispatch to the Enquirer from Galena, Ill., reports an interview with General Grant. As to his plans for the future, the General says they are not fully made, though it is possible he may visit the West Indies and spend a part of the winter there, returning through Mexico. "When I start east in September, it is possible I may get employment at something which may change my other plans. The information I have of being chosen president of the Texas Pacific railroad is through the newspapers. Nothing of the kind has ever been offered me."

Reporter. "Very many people insist that you must be President of the United States again."

"That too," said General Grant, "is without my authority. The fact is I have not been disturbing myself about anything since I went away. Any plan made for the future for me is without consultation with me."

DAILY NEWS

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1879.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

THE audacity of Senator Conkling in desiring to form a copartnership between the National Republican committee and his New York machine, with Cornell for general manager, has about knocked Blaine and Sherman off their feet. They agree in regarding Conkling as too outrageously forward for anything.

THE popular testimonial of friendly esteem which Mr. Bayard has received at the hands of his fellow-citizens of both parties, must have filled the honest Delawarean's cup of happiness to the brim. The people whom he represents have thus shown once more that, although there have been times when his course has not seemed so plainly right to some of them as to him—especially when he has gone counter to the revolutionary spirit that ruled his own party for a season—he has their entire respect and confidence. Throughout the country there are hundreds of thousands of citizens who were present last night in spirit, and will join in saying to Delaware's favorite son: "Well done, good and faithful servant."

THE Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says that Secretary Schurz was the only member of the Cabinet who took no notice of an invitation extended him to speak in New York. As he spoke in Ohio and elsewhere, the correspondent says the real cause of his indifference may be looked for in the bitter personal animosity which subsists between him and Senator Conkling, and which dates back to the time of the French arms investigation. Republicans say they have no doubt Mr. Schurz would refuse to support either Mr. Conkling or General Grant, and that if either one of them is nominated by the Republican Convention, and Mr. Bayard receives the Democratic nomination, he will support the latter.

IN declining to allow his name to go before the Ohio Legislature for the Senatorship, Secretary Sherman furnishes the Republican party with a second notice that he is to be regarded as a Presidential candidate. The first notice was not so long ago that the people have forgotten it. Notwithstanding his assiduous efforts in the South and West, it is quite probable that the National Convention will forget all about him before next June. The Grant boom is a trifle too imposing for the aspiring Secretary. The recent receptions with which Grant has met are anything but consoling to his feverish ambition. There is a prospect of a lively time among the stalwarts next year; but the indications are that Sherman, Blaine & Co. will be left to chew upon the bitter end of discontent.

"DEATH TO THE UNION."

As will be seen in the telegraphic columns, these are the closing words of General Robert Toombs' congratulations to General Grant. Toombs is a queer genius, but we believe he is honest, after all—perhaps more so than a great many others who talk soft.

Our night dispatches give an interview by an Atlanta, Ga., reporter, with General T, wherein he makes some corrections. See telegraph column.

GRANT AND THOSE EGGS.

The Boston Herald has this to say about Grant and eggs and the fellow who hit the General: "General Grant has been fired at a good many times by brave men who were fighting for a bad cause, but we believe he never was assailed by any meaner miscreant than the fellow who threw an egg at him at Galesburg, Illinois. He was making a speech the night after the election when something struck him on the head. The egg was in a good state of preservation, but it would have been a good deal more savory in a frying pan than plastered on the General's back hair. The St. Louis Globe-Democrat tells how it happened as follows:

Just as General Grant began talking something struck him on the back of the head, which proved to be an egg, but not a rotten one. The ruffians threw from behind. The crowd did not at first understand the nature of the trouble, but when they did they became infuriated. The culprits had either escaped or mingled in the throng. The mayor, who was in the car, at once came out and, on the part of the city, offered $500 reward for the apprehension of the perpetrator. Three eggs were thrown, two of them overshooting the mark and striking persons in the crowd. General Grant was very indignant at the outrage, but assured the committee that he did not lay blame to Galesburg or its people; that it simply was evidence that roughs existed everywhere. Mr. Price stated that he hoped the villains would be captured, but was glad that they were not found last night, as nothing could have prevented a lynching. The people of Galesburg are fearfully worked up over the affair and feel the disgrace keenly."

An American gentleman is about as fine a specimen of humanity as the stock of Adam is capable of producing; but if you want concentrated meanness, "cussedness" in its dirtiest and most despicable form, a mixture of the vilest qualities of the ass, the hyena, the skunk and the rattlesnake, just hunt up an American loafer and rough and you have them. General Grant has been round the world without an insult; he has visited England, France, Germany, Italy, Egypt, Turkey, India, China and Japan. He has spent weeks among heathens and Mohommedans, but it was not until he reached his own State and got among his own people that he was subjected to a personal indignity."

The Suits Against Mr. Tilden.

New York Tribune, (Republican.)

The appeal in the case of Samuel J. Tilden against the Government has been perfected. United States Commissioner Shields is engaged in making up the record of the case to be certified to by the Clerk of the Circuit Court to the United States Supreme Court. The suit against Mr. Tilden is in this position. The Government began the action in the District Court of common law and the defendant set up two defences. He claimed in the first place that he had not received the amount of income alleged in the complaint, and in the second place that the Government was bound by the action of its assessors, who had enforced the penalty for Mr. Tilden's refusal to return the amount of his income. The issue of fact raised by the first defence is still awaiting trial. To the second defence District Attorney Woodford took a demurrer before Judge Choate, and was sustained. The present suit on the Equity side of the United States Circuit Court was then begun by the Government filing a bill of discovery and alleging that the Government was unable to prove the allegations of the complaint by any other testimony than that called for by the bill of discovery. To this the defence demurred, and the demurrer was overruled by Judge Blatchford. From the decree overruling the demurrer the appeal of Mr. Tilden against the United States has been taken. Meanwhile the case in the District Court still stands, and whatever the decision of the Supreme Court may be, the issue of fact as to the amount of income may be tried.

Talks of Resigning.

Springfield Republican.

A Washington dispatch reports that Charles H. Voorhis, a Republican member from New Jersey, talks of resigning because of his disastrous failure. A Democrat would probably be elected in his place, as the district is Democratic, and this would change the political complexion of the delegation from the State, making it Democratic instead of Republican,—an important matter if the election of a President is thrown into the House, as the change in New Jersey would give the Democrats a majority by States, counting Indiana in their favor.

[This is the party who was arrested for abstracting collaterals, deposited in the First National Bank of Hackensack, to secure private loans, a telegraphic account of which appeared in yesterday's NEWS.—ED. NEWS.]

Bayard Strong in New York and New England.

Providence Press (Ind Rep. 10th.)

The absence of Senator Bayard in Europe up to within a few days seems to prove somewhat conclusively that he is not engineering the late Democratic movement in his favor. He will probably do little or nothing to protect his own chances for the Presidency, but if the nomiuation is offered him he will no doubt accept it and prove to be a very popular candidate. Mr. Bayard will be the strongest Democratic candidate in New York and New England, and liberal Republicans will probably prefer him to a stalwart or General Grant.

Mr. Hoskins in New York.

The Honorable George G. Hoskins, of Attica, Wyoming county, whom the Republican State Committee believes to be the Lieutenant-Governor-elect, is at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. He visited the rooms of the State Committee about noon, and in the afteanoon went to Brooklyn to dine with friends. Mr. Hoskins said he was perfectly willing to be elected and that he came to New York partly to see if he could get any light upon the subject. The county of Wyoming had given him a handsome vote, but Genessee, he said, had not done so much for him as he had expected.

Mrs. Gen. Eaton's Funeral.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Eaton, widow of General John H. Eaton, Secretary of War under President Jackson, and on account of whom General Jackson broke up his Cabinet, was largely attended to-day. Among the floral offerings were bouquets from Mrs. Hayes and Mr. McCrary. Mr. Hayes, in a note to the family, regretted his inability to be present at the funeral, and tendered his deepest sympathy.

Verdict Against A Priest.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—A Springfield, Mass., special says: The suit of Joseph Parker, a Holyoke livery-stable keeper, against Andrew B. Defrense, a French Catholic priest, for $10,000 damages, because the latter told the people of his parish not to hire hacks of the former, as he had disobeyed the commands of the church, resulted to-day in a verdict for Parker in the superior Court.

Strangled by a Gate.

On Saturday morning, November 1, a five year old son of Mr. Bogart, of Stone Bridge, Ulster county, N. Y., went to feed the turkeys in a pen in his father's barn. The gate to the pen is opened by sliding it up. The child raised the gate and then put his head through, when the gate fell and caught him by the neck. His struggles caused the gate to shut down still closer, and when search was made for him ten minutes later, the child was dead.

Which End Shall be Up?

Cincinnati Enquirer, Dem.

It is a matter for future discussion whether the ticket shall read Potter and Hendricks or Hendricks and Potter. We are now simply engaged in getting out raw material. If the States be considered in the order of their importance, then Potter's claims seem to surpass those of Hendricks; if the nominations go by rules of personal promotion, then Hendricks marches to the front.

Trifling Need of the Democracy.

Harrisburg Patriot, Democrat.

Singular as it may appear, it is nevertheless true, that a change of four votes in every hundred from the Republican to the Democratic party in this State will give the Democrats forty thousand majority.

Growing Gray.

New York Sun.

Hayes is growing gray. Fifty thousand dollars a year, deadhead rides on the railroads, a successful competition with the prize ox as an object of public curiosity at cattle shows—all these delights are dear to Hayes' heart. But they are all poisoned by the consciousness that he is a fraud. That is enough to make any man's hair turn gray.

Got Out Doors.

The close confinement of all factory work, gives the operators pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidney and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicines in the world cannot help them unless they get out of doors or use Hop Bitters, the purest and best remedy, especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. CHILDREN WERE LEGITIMATE.

Man and Woman not Married, but Children not to Blame.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Several years ago Will B. Hines died in Europe and left a wife and two children. He left a house in this city, which his sisters took possession of and claimed, on the ground that he had not been legally married, and that the children were illegitimate. A suit was commenced by Mrs. Hines against the deceased's sisters for recovery of the profits of the house, and also for possession thereof. There had been no marriage ceremony performed, but they mutually agreed in presence of witnesses to become man and wife. The jury on trial decided that the marriage was binding, and the children legitimate and entitled to the property. An appeal was taken to the General Term of the Court of Common Pleas, which to-day rendered a decision affirming the decision of the court below.

Good Evidence.

When such men as the Rev. Dr. Rankin, Rev. Dr. Harvey, Prof. Green, Dr. Bartine, Col. John K. McChesny, E. W. Neff, and a host of others equally trustworthy, certify over their own signatures to the marvelous efficacy of Warner's Safe, Kidney and Liver Cure, in the diseases for which it is recommended, it is time to dismiss doubts on the subject.

VEGETINE

Behold Me a Well Woman.

CANCER.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 26, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON.

DEAR SIR:—I have for years been a sufferer from a dreadful CANCER in my side which caused me untold agony, and as I am a widow with a family depencent upon my exertions for a support, my pain of body was only equalled by my pain of mind, at seeing my children want for bread. I was presented by a kind friend in Cincinnati with half a dozen bottles of Vegetine, and although one bottle is still untouched, behold me a well woman, completely restored in body and mind, and able to perform my accustomed duties. Long may you live and may the history of my wonderful cure lead other like sufferers to purchase your valuable medicine, if it is with the last cent they possess.

Yours gratefully,
MRS. FULLER SUTT.

I write this to certify that I have known Mrs. Fuller Sutt from childhood, and have seen the hours of agony, that her patient womanhood has been called upon to endure. She has suffered untold agonies and now sits beside me in perfect health with her child upon her knee. The prayers of this grateful woman will ever be yours, my noble sir, and we add our testimony to the thousands that favor the greatest of all modern discoveries, "Vegetine."

Yours respectfully,
MRS. CHELLET SUMMER

SUFFERED 25 YEARS.

Piles, Rheumatism.

GOODMAN, MISS., May 6, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON:

I have been suffering for 25 years with the Piles and found but little relief from any medicine that I have taken for many years past. Last winter I suffered considerably worse than ever before, also in connection with Rheumatism I was confined to my bed for several weeks. Having procured a bottle of Vegetine I took it with good effect. I continued the use, and after taking four or five bottles, find myself comparatively cured. I can cheerfully recommend it for the benefits that I have received from it.

Yours respectfully,
J. W. TAGGART.

LUNG DISEASE.

ELMA, ALA., May 12, 1872.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON:

I take great pleasure in recommending your Vegetine. I have been suffering for a long time with the Lung Disease; trying every kind of medicine that I could get, but none seemed to do me any good, until I tried your great Vegetine remedy. I had used it only a short time before I could discover a very great change in my health for the better. I don't consider that your medicine has its equal, for the diseases which you propose to cure, especially the disease that I have been afflicted with Public Sentiment.

Bertie Correspondent of the Observer.

Considerate people reflect that our next candidate has to be elected after he is nominated. When times are very hard Democrats are not apt to attend the elections. Our taxes are very heavy. What we pay and are to pay towards the Ducktown and Paint Rock and Asheville railways is being looked into down here. The people are afflicted with short crops and low prices, and are not enthusiastic in politics. Let the aspirants know that we are looking very closely into men's records. My opinion is that it will not be a Vance frolic in the next election. And it will be quite well for our party if they remember that there is an Eastern section of North Carolina.

Pender County Correspondent of the Observer.

Subscriptions of money and lands, the latter to be hypothecated for money, are the effective methods of our people in these counties, light rails and cheap transportation—now the railroad doctrine of the people—are the sentiments that prevail here where the tax payers are tired of paying State taxes to build unprofitable railroads in the transmontane counties that can never profit the State.

Farmer and Mechanic.

We hazzard but little in predicting that before the conservative nominating convention of next year, the question of "Railroad Appropriations" will assume the proportion of a very attitudinous "boom." You are invited not to forget it.

The Radical Game in New York.

New York World.

It was perfectly well known on Wednesday morning that Mr. Potter and the whole Democratic State ticket except Governor Robinson had been elected by a considerable majority. The Democratic State Committee thereupon disbanded. The Republican State Committee thereupon went to work. The late Z. Chandler had smuggled a defeated candidate into the Presidency of the United States by prompt and vigorous "claiming," after the defeated candidate in a public speech had admitted his defeat and it naturally occurred, therefore, to the managers of the allied Tammany-Republican canvass that the performance might be imitated on a small scale in this State.

Beecher as a Politician.

Mr. Beecher advised the Plymouth brethren to vote for Corneil. He received 31,381 votes in Brooklyn. He urged them through Sherman to scratch Woodruff, Republican candidate for Mayor, because he was not on his side in the Tilton trial. Woodruff obtained 33,525 votes, which was 2,044 more than Cornell received. Beecher has mistaken his calling. He ought to devote himself to preaching the gospel.

Almost Young Again.

"My mother was afflicted a long time with Neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over seventy years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family."—A lady, in Providence, R. I.

Cuticura

From the Hon. Wm. Taylor, State Senator of Massachusetts.

Messrs. Weeks & Potter: Gentlemen,—To say that I am grateful, is only a poor expression of my feelings, but it is the best word I can use, for I feel it in every sense of the word. I have been a great sufferer with skin diseases for the last twelve (12) years. My head and face being covered with sores, I could not rest with the burning heat and itching of the parts affected, and was confined to my house for weeks at a time. My disease has been called Eczema, of a most aggravated type, by many physicians, but I doubt if ever fully understood by any of them. It was more like a combination of several skin humors. I have spent much money seeking a cure, and in 1877 I went to Europe, and consulted some of the best physicians in London. I received temporary relief only, for in the spring it would break out again as bad as ever. When I came back to Boston, I was told by many friends that Dr. —— (whose reputation for the cure of those diseases was of the highest order) could cure me. I waited on the doctor; he prescribed for me. I followed his advice for six months, and I can safely say, without any improvement. I tried other physicians and among them Dr. ——, of East Boston, and Dr. ——, of city proper, but all to no purpose. They did me no good; their remedies were so ineffectual that no time did I feel that a cure would result from them.

I have swallowed five hundred arsenic pills, 5.20 grain, and taken bottle after bottle of internal remedies, besides all the external applications I have used, but the effect was the same. I became satisfied that I could not be cured, but might be kept from getting worse.

Now, about three months ago, Mr. Meehan, a gentleman well known to Boston people, called my attention to your CUTICURA, and promised wonderful results if I would only make a trial. He told me of his own experience with it, and so persevered on me that I went with him to a drug store and bought two large boxes of CUTICURA, and some CUTICURA SOAP, and commenced to use it according to the directions. There was so much humor lodged within the skin, that as soon as I commenced the use of CUTICURA it came to the surface and festered, until vast quantities had come out and greatly intensified my sufferings for about two weeks. But I did not mind this, as I felt that I was going to get rid of the humor when I saw it coming to the surface in such large quantities. After the first two or three weeks' use of this remedy, I was greatly encouraged by a gradual lessening of the inflammation of a number of painful sores. I carefully, faithfully, and cheerfully followed the directions to the letter, feeling each week nearer a cure, until at the present moment, after three months' use of CUTICURA, and twelve years of as constant suffering as was ever endured, I can say that I am cured, and pronounce my case the most remarkable on record. I have been so elated with my success that I have stopped men on the street who were afflicted, and told them to get the CUTICURA and it would cure them. This is why I am so grateful to you, for I believe it to be the best and greatest discovery of the age, and that it will cure all who are suffering with like diseases. I may add that I took no internal medicine but the CUTICURA RESOLVENT.

WILLIAM TAYLOR.

Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Pain in the Head, with a dull sensation in the back part, Pain under the shoulderblade, fullness after eating, with a disinclination to exertion of body or mind, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, with a feeling of having neglected some duty, Weariness, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, Yellow Skin, Headache generally over the right eye, Restlessness with fitful dreams, highly colored Urine.

IF THESE WARNINGS ARE UNHEEDED, SERIOUS DISEASES WILL SOON BE DEVELOPED.

TUTT'S PILLS are especially adapted to such cases, one dose effects such a change of feeling as to astonish the sufferer.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. If the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will soon follow.

Dr. I. Guy Lewis, Lydon, Ark., says:

"After a practice of 25 years, I pronounce TUTT'S PILLS the best anti-bilious medicine ever made."

Rev. F. R. Osgood, New York, says:

"I have had Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach and Nervousness. I never had any medicine to do me so much good as TUTT'S PILLS. They are as good as represented."

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—Hot.

—Phew!

—Dusty.

—Mete—or, I. C!

—News items scarce.

—Let's have a shower.

—Revenue receipts, $2,576.82.

—Another marriage license.

—Colonel J. D. Whitford is at the Yarboro.

—Lots of fun ahead next week. Theatres two.

—It was hot enough yesterday for seven meteoric showers.

—Everybody was looking for the shooting stars last night.

—Madame Rentz and her female minstrel show are coming.

—Thanksgiving turkeys are plentiful and the demand is good.

—The funeral of Mrs. P. Y. Uzzle took place yesterday morning.

—The eighty-first volume of the North Carolina Reports is out.

—This is the day the Adventists say the world is coming to an end.

—Twenty-three thousand and six hundred dollars of old bonds received for exchange yesterday.

—The Rentz Opera Troup have a nicely arranged and attractive bill board near the Yarborough.

—Charlie McDonald and J. Z. McRae left for Fayetteville last night to attend the "fair." Don't know her name.

—Miss Lizzie Hazle, No. 7 Webster street, Cleveland, Ohio, has a package addressed to her in the post office held for insufficient postage.

—The cotton gin and storehouse of Mr. W. T. Dossett, Headley's Mills, Chatham county, were burned last Tuesday. Most of the goods in the store were saved.

—Read W. C. & A. B. Stronach's advertisement. They have a fine line of groceries and every one knowns the Stronach's are fair men and always treat their customers right.

—Commissioner Purnell yesterday had Albert Williams of White Oak township, before him charged with "moonshining." The evidence did not sustain the charge and the defendant was discharged.

—The cotton market on yesterday was again excited and active. The market opened at 11 1-8 and advanced to 11 3-8 to 11 1-2 and closed strong at 11 3-8 cents. In New York the market was unusually excited and the fluctuations unusualy heavy. It declined thirto-five points, regained that and and advanced fifty points (a half cent.) There must be an unusual "squeeze" ahead for Novembers.

—Read the new advertisement of that veteran liquor dealer, Mr. A. W. Fraps. Mr. Fraps is too well and favorably known here to require a very extended notice at our hands. We can only tell you through his advertisement that he keeps the purest of liquors, both in his wholesale department and in his bar, and if you want pure liquors, go and see Fraps.

—The Messrs. Stronach have both their ample stores stocked full of choice heavy and fancy groceries. These gentleman are enterprising business men and rank among the first merchants of the State and South. They deservedly enjoy a big run of custom and enjoy the confidence of their patrons. When you want groceries go to Stronachs and buy with the assurance that you are getting your money's worth and are being delt squarely by.

—Barnes Crenshaw is the man we alluded to in yesterday's issue as pulling his wife home by the hair. He was before the Mayor yesterday, who fined him $5, and costs. It seems that he found his wife on the street at 12 o'clock p. m. asked her what she was doing. She replied that she was looking for the stars: "Well, hiv you seen enny?" inquired Barnes; and after receiving a negative reply, remarked that she "shouldn't be dis'pinted, that would show her some," and we reckon he kept his word.

—Remember Mr. John S. Stevens and company play "Unknown" at Tucker Hall on the night of the 20th. This is a most excellent play, it is said, and the papers teem with praises for Mr. Stevens. The Philadelphia Press has this to say of him and his play:—"Mr. John A. Stevens as the 'Unknown;' in his play of 'Unknown,' has done a very successful business at this house during the past week. He is a good actor, and has been well received, having been the recipient of the honor of a call before the curtain at every performance. The play is an excellent one, and could easily have run a longer time."

—One drunk and down at the mayor's court yesterday, and pretty well down at that, lying flat on his back. When asded what he was doing in that position at that time of night he immediately replied: "I'm looking for the falling stars; say mister whar's that metalic shower gone anyway?" The officer thought it was about the dew was falling and respecting the poor fellow's health told him he thought it would be better if he would watch the firmaments through the gratings of the station house. He was rather adverse to this proceeding at first, but finally caved and exclaiming to the policeman "you're a man after my own heart" went down to the station house for twelve hours.

—Mr. E. Rosenbaum, general agent for the Rentz-Stanley Novelty Co., was in the city yesterday posting his company, &c. This is a splendid troupe if the press everywhere is to be believed. They play "Pinafore" at Tucker Hall on the night of the 21st. Not the ordinary Pinafore; but this is a burlesque on the opera that is said to beat the original play itself. All our people will go to see this, especially those who have witnessed the old Pinafore. Here is what the Wilmington (Del.) Gazette says of this company:—"Those who went to the Opera House last evening to see a good show were not disappointed. The company have frequently appeared here, and have always given great satisfaction. The programme last evening was attractive, and followed out to the letter. The ladies in the minstrel scene looked charming, and the singing was excellent. Benedict and Wilson, are hard to beat, their jokes being new and well given. Rosa Lee, Hattie Forrest, Kate Raynham, Parker Sisters, Mabel Santley, Lzia Mortimore, Nellie Richards, Vic North and Harry Wood appeared in numerous specialities, all being first-class and of a high order of merit. There was a freedom in the performance that would not shock the sensibilities, and the company may justly be ranked as one of the very best organizations traveling.

Carolina Rifle Club.

This club shot the seventh match at the 200 yard range yesterday afternoon. Eighteen members competed for the gold badge of the club, which was offered for the best score. The shooting was not equal to the average, and none of the scores were high. The following is the score:

Batchelor, E. A.,	4	3	2	0	3—12
Batchelor, J. B.,	4	3	4	3	4—18
Jones, W. W.,	3	4	4	5	3—19

Foster, Omega,	0	0	5	2	3—10
Pullen, John,	4	3	5	3	2—17
Lewis, R. H.,	3	3	0	0	2— 8
Andrews, P. H.,	0	0	2	0	2— 4
Primrose, W. S.,	3	3	4	3	3—16
Olds, F. A.,	2	5	3	2	4—16
Ferrall, John,	0	3	2	2	0— 8
Raney, R. B.,	4	3	4	3	3—17
Busbee, W. M.,	0	0	0	0	0— 0
Moore, B. F.,	3	4	3	4	3—17

The tie between Messrs. Jones and Joe Ferrall was then shot off, when the latter made three and the former two. Mr. Ferrall, therefore, won the match and the badge.

North Carolina Criminal Digest.

Messrs. Edwards, Broughton & Co., have in press a book which we can confidentially state will prove indespensable to the legal profession and of great benefit to such justices of the peace as care to post themselves upon the criminal law. It will contain a digest of every decision upon criminal law made by the Supreme Court of the State, including the 81 N. C., just published, and a compilation of all the public criminal statutes. Battle's Revisal has been amended to so considerable an extent, and there have been so many statutes creating additional offences, that it is now necessary to examine a half dozen volumns of the acts before one can be certain about the tenus of any statute. The criminal digest has been very carefully prepared with numerous headings and subdivisions containiug all the decisions found in 1, 2 and 4 Battle's Digest, 5 (Bailey's) Digest and 80 and 81 N. C., and the statutes have been accurately compiled. The work is by Mr. F. H. Busbee, of the Raleigh bar, and will be completed be completed before January 1st. It will contain about five hundred pages and will be sold, we learn, at the price of $4.50. A fuller announcement will shortly be made.

Sherman vs. Providence.

Washington Post.

Mr. Bayard had no intention to be unjust or unkind to Mr. John Sherman when he spoke of our increasing prosperity as evincing "the bounty and favor of Providence." Mr. Bayard had been out of the country for some months and had not learned that Mr. Sherman restored all our industries to active life and turned the balance of trade in our favor.

Professor Bernard

The funeral of Professor Bernard Walton, whose remains arrived from Texas yesterday; and who was the organizer of the Atlanta public schools, was attended by ten thousand people. Eulogies were pronounced by Governor Colquitt, Mayor Calhoun, and Dr. Haygood.

Each of Warner's Safe Remedies—the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, Safe Pills, Safe Nervine, and Safe Bitters, is asserted to be the best of its class, and the intention is to keep it so. If any medical expert can add an ingredient which will improve any one of them, he will be paid a high price for the improvement.

What Physicians at Home and Abroad Think of the Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass.

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anæmia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Amenorrhœa, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder and such like organic or functional disturbances, I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."

W. F. BARR, M. D.,
Abingdon, Va.

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass." In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Anæmia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Eczema, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.

GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D.,
New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for chronic diseases.

G. M. D. PATTERSON, M. D.,
Eaglewood, Texas.

For Dyspepsia, Ulcerations of the Throat, Inflammation of the Neck of the Bladder, Leucorrhœa, etc., the "Seven Springs Mass" seems to act with almost specific effect.

E. O. GRIGSBY,
DeView, Ark.

We could extend this list into the thousands with such testimonials from physicians from every State in the Union, but these are sufficient to indicate its application. The reputation of the remedy is too widely known to waste words upon its character. In ordering from druggists always mention Seven Springs Mass. Price $1 per package or six for $5, sent by mail, postpaid.

OFFICE OF GRAND SECRETARY,
RALEIGH, Nov. 6, 1879.

The Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina will commence its 93d Annual Communication at its hall in this city on Tuesday, 2d of December next, at 7:30 o'clock P. M.

Officers and representatives can procure return tickets, on application, over the railroads, etc., at the rates herein mentioned, viz:

Six cents per mile for the round trip over the following:

Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad; Seaboard and Roanoke; Raleigh and Gaston; Raleigh and Augusta Air-Line; Wilmington and Weldon; Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta; Richmond and Danville (North Carolina Division); North Western North Carolina; Piedmont; and Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta.

Six and one-fourth cents over the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad.

For one first class fare over the following: Western North Carolina Railroad; Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley (from Fayetteville); Carolina Central; Atlanta and Charlotte Air-Line; and Dismal Swamp Canal.

It is especially suggested that return tickets over all the routes mentioned are necessary to prevent the payment of full fare, except the Atlanta and Charlotte Air-Line, over which the Grand Secretary's certificate will be issued to return.

There has never been a baking powder placed upon the market in this county that has effected such a revelution as Potapsco Baking Powder. It is a patented article. There are many base imitations. Be sure to ask for and get Potapsco.

The Electric Light.

If Professor Edison's Electric light is going to supersede the use of gas, we are glad of it. Gas is the bane of our national existence. When hoarse with too much speaking take Hall's Balsam. It is especially adapted to congressmen, ministers and the rest of mankind.

Why Will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Cough, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's famous German prescription, ane is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of a failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.

Rosadalis'

THE GREAT SOUTHERN remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Scrofulous Taint, Rheumatism, White Swelling Gout, Goitre, Consumption, Bronchitis, Nervous Debility and all diseases arising from an impure condition of the Blood.

The merits of this valuable preparation are so well known that a passing notice is but necessary to remind the readers of this journal of the necessity of always having a bottle of this med cine among their stock of family necessities

Certificates can be presented from many leading Physicians Minister, and heads of families throughout the South, endorsing in the highest terms The Fluid Extract of Rosadalis.

DR. R. WILLIAM CARR, of Baltimore says he has used it in cases of Scrofula and other diseases with much satisfaction.

DR. J. C. PUGH, of Baltimore, recommends it to all persons suffering with diseased Blood, saying it is superior to any preparation he has ever used

REV DABNEY BALL, of the Baltimore M. E. Conference South, says he is so much benefited by its use that he cheerfully recommends it to all his friends and acquaintances

CRAVES & CO., Druggists, of Gordonsville, Va., says it never has failed to give satisfaction.

Samuel G. McFadden, of Murfreesboro, Tennessee, says it cured him of Rheumatism when all else failed.

Rosadalis is not a secret quack preparation, its ingredients are published on every package. Show it to your Physician and he will tell you it is composed of the strongest alteratives that exist, and is an excellent blood purifier. Did our space admit we could give you testimonials from every State in the South and from persons known to every man, woman and child either personally or by reputation.

Rosadalis is sold by all Druggists.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

By authority of law, I, Thomas J. Jarvis, Governor of North Carolina, do set apart Thursday, November 27th, 1879, as a day of prayer and thanksgiving to Almighty God, for the manifold mercies and blessings He has vouchsafed to us during the year now passing away.

And in order for its proper observance I request the people on that day to close up their places of business and abandoning all secular pursuits to attend their respective places of Divine Worship, to return thanks to the Great Ruler of individuals and nations for the peace and tranquility which we have enjoyed; for the exemption from pestilence and disease which He has given us; for the kind and friendly relations that has existed among all classes of our citizens; for the general and growing prosperity that has pervaded the whole State and for all His varied blessings bestowed upon us; and to invoke a continuance of His watchful care and protection over us during the coming year.

And while it will be becoming on that day to remember the widow and the orphan, and the poor and needy everywhere among us; and to minister to their wants, I especially commend to the prayers and gifts of the people the Orphans in the Asylum at Oxford, who are now dependent for a support solely upon the charity of the people, the State appropriation for that purpose being entirely exhausted.

Done at our city of Raleigh this, the 11th day of November, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy nine, and in the one hundred and fourth year of our American Independence.

By the Governor,
THOMAS J. JARVIS.
LEE S. OVERMAN, Private Secretary.
